

Though My Soul

Music: Franz Josef Haydn (Germany, 1732 - 1809)

Lyrics: Sarah Williams (England, 1841 - 1868)

Starting Pitch: _____

Musical score for the song "Though My Soul". The score is written in treble clef with a 4/4 time signature. It consists of three staves of music. The first staff begins with a first ending bracket over the first two measures. The second staff begins with a third ending bracket over the last two measures. The third staff begins with a fourth ending bracket over the first two measures and a fifth ending bracket over the last two measures. The lyrics are: "Though my soul may set in dark- ness, it will rise in per- fect light. I have loved the stars too fond- ly to be fear- ful of the night, fear- ful of the night."

What good fortune to find such beautiful lyrics set to this beautiful music! The lyrics are the last two lines from Sarah Williams' poem, "The Old Astronomer to His Pupil." You can find the poem in Hazel Felleman's well-loved book, Best Loved Poems of the American People.
